AN ENEMY ON CASTOR OIL.

With all our vaunted discoveries we have never been able to produce an agreeable article of castor oil or a specific for sea sickness. Brethren there a man with soul so dead that he does not recollect the castor oiling which his poor machine used to undergo at stated periods of his youth? To castor oil a child of two to seven years of age requires three or four strong women, a spoon, a magnum bottle of the fluid, a lump of sugar, a towel, a jumping jack, and a scaphic temper. The first motion is to endeavor to ring in the medicines on the unsuspecting babe, tightly disguised in milk. The maneuver failing, you paly with the enemy and attempt to corrupt its infantile integrity with tortuous and tickling movements. The things more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor vomiting pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After few days of use, the stomach becomes more pliable and the appetite is increased. After having tempted it thrice, put the spoon of Tanisus to its lips, it refuses point blank to touch the nasty thing. Thereupon your surcharged-in digestion finds vent in corporal chastisement of the rebellious infant. It howls. Peace being restored, you bring up reinforcements, and strategy and diplomacy having failed, determined to accept nothing but unconditional surrender, and prepare to march at once upon the enemy's works. A grand combined attack is made. The left wing firmly holds the child's hands, the right wing pinches its nose so as to compel it to open its mouth, into which the centre wing—deadly fire from the spoon. Meanwhile the reserve holds up a lump of sugar, comiserately saying, "poor little tootsy pousty, was it ussy medicy eh?" and keeps the towel ready. The babe yells and chokes, the young mother, afraid of calling a leg to its nose, is compelled to make hasty discharges the whole dose into her and ruins all the front breaths of her black silk, and follows up its advantage by so heart-broke a yell that the attacking party surrenders at discretion, and calls it a poor, injured, man's own toothless, and it won't take any nasty easy oil, if it don't want to. A treaty of peace is then ratified, whereby the infant is ceded immunity from castor oil and an ample indemnity in lollipops, and then the young mother enters into a war with the infant's grandmother, who vigorously repudiates the weakness exhibited in dealing with children nowadays. People have tried all sorts of expedients. Taken it in milk. In soda water. In a hot sponge. Etc. Etc. But no later. Frank has ever been able to overrule and annihilate the nastiness of castor oil. It has a sluggish, cold, apertient look about it, like an omelet pool in a deadly swamp. It uncoils itself into the fetal spook like a boiled rattlesnake. It tastes like molten grave yards, and one's gorge rises at it as if it were one of Mrs. Woodhull's lectures. But the fact is, when it has been achieved, is that one's inside is full of earthworms and worm-screws.

THE ROMAN Catholic Bishop of Savannah, Georgia, has issued a vigorously written "Personal," to the clergy and laity of his diocese, upon the subject of Temperance. In this document he quotes largely, and with warm appreciation, from the Temperance Lecture delivered by the Bishop of Newark, New Jersey. It is encouraging to find a prelate so well departing from ecclesiastical usages, as to tell his people that "Health is of all treasures the most valuable—that the very life of life," taking care to add that to health there is no more fatal enemy than strong drinking, and that "those who sow in false joy must expect to reap in bitterness."

HOW TO ENJOY LIFE.—It is wonderful to what extent people believe happiness depends on not being obliged to labor. Honest, hearty, contented labor is the one source to happiness, as well as the only guarantee of life. Idleness and luxury induces premature decay much faster than many trades regarded as the most exhaustive and fatal to longevity. Labor in general, actually in view of its physical and mental exertions, is superabundant in its effects for which it is used, and epithetic affection—in these diseases are all in connection with Hembold's Rose Wash.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND FLUID Extract Catawba GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affection, Sack or Nervous Headache, Jaundice, etc. Purely vegetable containing no mercury, minerals or deleterious drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgatives, proceeding natural and simple. They are more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor vomiting pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After few days of use, the stomach becomes more pliable and the appetite is increased. The entire system is taken place as appear miraculous in the weak and inveterate, whether arising from impotence or disease. H. T. Hembold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not only to dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. The Catawba Grape Pills, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. Price fifty cents per box.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla will radically extirpate from the system Sarcoptia, Syphilis, Fever-Sores, Ulcers, Sore Eyes, Sore Legs, Sore Mouth, Sore Head, Bronchitis, Skin Diseases, Sore Throat, Tumors, Inflammations of the Liver, Worms, Tumors, Tumors, Cancerous Adhesions, Nodules, Blisters, Glaucomatous Sclerotics, Night Sweats, Rash, Tetter, Ulcers of all Kinds, Throats, Rheumatism, Hypersensitivity, and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

L

Being prepared expressly for the above complaints, its blood-purifying properties are greater than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla. It gives the complexion a more healthy color, and restores the patient to a state of health and parvity, purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases, arising from an impotent, sluggish, and unclean blood, and effectual known remedy for the pains and swelling of the bones, ulcerations of the throat and legs, blisters, pimples on the face, eruptions and all ugly eruptions of the skin and beautifying the complexion. Taken it in milk. In soda water. In a hot sponge. Etc. Etc. But no later. Frank has ever been able to overrule and annihilate the nastiness of castor oil. It has a sluggish, cold, apertient look about it, like an omelet pool in a deadly swamp. It uncoils itself into the fetal spook like a boiled rattlesnake. FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU, THE GREAT DIURETIC, has cured every case of lithiasis in which it has been given, irritation of the neck of the bladder and induration of the kidneys, ulceration of the kidneys and bladder, retention of urine. Because of the properties of Buchu, it is a specific for all diseases of the kidneys, bladder, heart, and nervous system, kidney discharges, and for enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to exertion, loss of memory, loss of memory, loss of strength, weak nerves, trembling, horror of disease, wakiness, dimness of vision, pain in the back, hot heads, dashing of the body, dryness of the skin, eruption on the face, pallid countenance, universal asthenia of the muscular system, etc.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to forty-five in the decline or change of life, after confinement or labor pains, bed-wetting in children.

Hembold's Extract Buchu is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from habits of dissipation, in less than a week. It is a specific for all diseases of the blood, etc., superseding especially in fevers for which it is used, and epithetic affections—in these diseases are all in connection with Hembold's Rose Wash.

In many afflictions peculiar to ladies, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy—in chlorosis or retention, irregular, painless or suppression of custom, early evasions, ulcerated or septic state of the womb, etc., hemorrhoids, etc., and to all complaints attendant to the sex whether arising from irritation or habits of dissipation, it is prescribed extensively by the most eminent physicians and midwives for enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases or symptoms).

D. T. HEMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
Cures diseases arising from indolence, habits of dissipation, etc.

In their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvience, and no exposure. Price one dollar and fifty cents per bottle.

L HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a Face Wash, and will be unequalled by any other remedy—in chlorosis or retention, irregular, painless or suppression of custom, early evasions, ulcerated or septic state of the womb, etc., hemorrhoids, etc., and to all complaints attendant to the sex whether arising from irritation or habits of dissipation, it is prescribed extensively by the most eminent physicians and midwives for enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases or symptoms).

A FEELING PLEA.—In a small town in Pennsylvania there lived a young tailor named Charlie. His Charlie's wife took sick and died, and he mourned her loss with much grief for a time, but at the end of six weeks he had another blushing bride to the altar. During the wedding festivities a noisy "Calithum pia" appeared outside of the house, and began a dismal serenade with the tin-horns and kettles. After a few minutes the dir and confusion became so great, that Charlie left his guests and appeared at the door with a piteous expression of grief on his face, and addressed the crowd as follows:

"I say, boys, you ought to be ashamed of yourselves to be making all dis noise while the busy bee fills out its day in usefulness and honor.

THE KANSAS Legislature adjourned Saturday. The Governor signed a bill which provided that persons convicted of murder shall be confined in the penitentiary one year before being hung, and not then executed, until the Governor signs his warrant thereof.

A MAN in Robertson county, Texas, has forty-one living children. Sixteen of them served in the same company in a Confederate regiment during the war. He is now living with his eighth wife, and is 65 years old.

AT a warehouse in Macou, Ga., recently, when a bale of cotton was being sampled, the gimbet was drawn out, and, instead of cotton, an old wool hat was attached to it. The sampler stood and bared for some time, hoping to reach the African who had it, but at last as counts had not "struck it."

A LADY in Lyon county by the name of Oliver recently gave birth to four children, two boys and two girls, all of whom are alive and doing well. Thirteen years ago this same lady brought forth three children at one birth, two of whom are still living.

MISS MINNIE PELLUM, of Warsaw, Ky., now about thirteen years of age, can play two different tunes upon the piano, and sing a third, pronouncing the words of the song distinctly, all at the same time.

SETH BOYDEN, a famous strawberry raiser, said if he could live twenty years he could produce a strawberry as large as a pineapple, and as delicious as the best field strawberry.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

SATURDAY, :: MAR. 16, 1872.

The Sheriffality.

We authorized and requested to announce JOHN F. TYLER, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Fulton county, in the ensuing election.

The farmers complain very much of the unfavorable weather for plowing.

The proprietors of Beech Wood Cemetery have treated their institution to a new large sized bell.

Circuit Court—Circuit Court adjourned last Monday. No important cases tried since our last issue.

The New says that steamboat building at Paducah, once a large and flourishing interest, has nearly played out.

Off for the PENITENTIARY.—Sheriff Roper leaves to-morrow for Frankfort, with the six convicts sentenced to the penitentiary.

RELIGIOUS.—The Second Quarterly meeting for Hickman Station, will be held to day and to-morrow. Services will be held under some trees, and the usual services will be held in the usual hours.

ERROR.—The report in our last issue of the dangerous illness of Col. Elbert Tansil, Dresden, Tenn., was an error. It was his young nephew, Elbert Tansil Durham.

The Hickman Free School, under charge of Prof. T. E. Boyce, assisted by Mr. T. S. French, and Miss Emma Fugner, closed Friday evening. We believe the term was highly satisfactory to the parents.

A new ferry boat is being placed across the mouth of Little Obion, between Hickman and Columbus. This will prove a great convenience to a considerable section of Hickman county who are desirous of trading at Hickman.

Now is the time to begin to plant shade trees. Let everyone who has a street front see to it that the older and trees are set with vigorous young ones, and those who have failed heretofore neglect no longer to add so materially to the beauty and comfort of their premises.

ROCK FOR THE WHARF.—The rock for building the Hickman wharf, has commenced to arrive a number of cars having been received Wednesday. This rock is brought in the flat cars of the quarry, on the Tennessee, and we understand a large sum is being paid for it for the purpose. It is the intention to fill in as much as possible before the Spring rise.

The First of the Spring.—Our enterprising merchant, Wm. B. Bowden, has received well and is now sending out new spring stock of goods, which we believe is the first spring arrival in the market. The public will give him well, as the reputation of this house is a sufficient guarantee for an excellent selection of stock. His motto is new as in the past, quick sales and small profits. We direct quick sales and attractive advertising in this issue.

THE CRY OF HARD TIMES A MISTAKE.—A trip through any of the adjacent back country to Hickman, will persuade all, that the cry of hard times so loudly prated by some, is and must be a mistake. You scarcely pass a farm house that is not undergoing some substantial repairs, and new and improved dwellings dot the whole face of the country. This community for many miles around is unmistakably in a prosperous condition, and even rapidly accumulating wealth. The cry of hard times has grown chronic with some, and measurably affects the whole country, but the signs of prosperity belie such croakers.

Died.—Died in this city, on the 11th inst. H. C. Bailey, Jr. son of Jas. B. and Katie H. Bailey, of Virginia, and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bailey, of this city. He was born in Charlotte county, Va. 1858. He had been in this city but a short time, when he was taken with a fit of delirium, and died after six days illness. He was tenderly beloved by his relatives and associates. Aged 19 years and 8 months.

From the GOVERNMENT SIDE.—We will receive in the next week a large lot of harness, pistols, guns, saddle, clothing, and various other articles, ten carloads to mention. Call soon and secure great bargains.

THE KENTUCKY FREEMASON.—We have before us the February number of this monthly Masonic monthly, edited and published by Rev. H. A. M. Henderson. It is filled with its usual amount of editorial and Masonic and miscellaneous reading matter. The difficulty with us, is to understand how a journal combining so many excellencies can be furnished so cheaply—the price for an annual subscription being $1.50, or ten copies for $12.50.

BUILDING AND ITS ENCOURAGEMENT.—It is probably too customary for newspaper to indulge in eulogy of property owners about towns for the high price of lots, and their failure to care about substantial town improvements. The owners have the unquestionable right to fix such value on their property as their judgment may tell them, but it is their improvement, and a general interest of regret. There is a disposition in the part of some to build in town now, but probably the disposition is not strong enough to begin to be very popular, and it may be abandoned, and the capital thus awaiting investment seek other channels.

Hickman has experienced various vicissitudes of fortune, and property owners have at times been very anxious that they did not overvalue the property, thereby adding increased value to their other property and rendering it more difficult and permanent.

There are some who like Hickman which can be built upon and should be held to day and to-morrow. Services will be held under some trees, and the usual services will be held in the usual hours.

THE CRY OF HARD TIMES A MISTAKE.—A trip through any of the adjacent back country to Hickman, will persuade all, that the cry of hard times so loudly prated by some, is and must be a mistake. You scarcely pass a farm house that is not undergoing some substantial repairs, and new and improved dwellings dot the whole face of the country. This community for many miles around is unmistakably in a prosperous condition, and even rapidly accumulating wealth. The cry of hard times has grown chronic with some, and measurably affects the whole country, but the signs of prosperity belie such croakers.

Died.—Died in this city, on the 11th inst. H. C. Bailey, Jr. son of Jas. B. and Katie H. Bailey, of Virginia, and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bailey, of this city. He was born in Charlotte county, Va. 1858. He had been in this city but a short time, when he was taken with a fit of delirium, and died after six days illness. He was tenderly beloved by his relatives and associates. Aged 19 years and 8 months.

From the GOVERNMENT SIDE.—We will receive in the next week a large lot of harness, pistols, guns, saddle, clothing, and various other articles, ten carloads to mention. Call soon and secure great bargains.

THE KENTUCKY FREEMASON.—We have before us the February number of this monthly Masonic monthly, edited and published by Rev. H. A. M. Henderson. It is filled with its usual amount of editorial and Masonic and miscellaneous reading matter. The difficulty with us, is to understand how a journal combining so many excellencies can be furnished so cheaply—the price for an annual subscription being $1.50, or ten copies for $12.50.

BUILDING AND ITS ENCOURAGEMENT.—It is probably too customary for newspaper to indulge in eulogy of property owners about towns for the high price of lots, and their failure to care about substantial town improvements. The owners have the unquestionable right to fix such value on their property as their judgment may tell them, but it is their improvement, and a general interest of regret. There is a disposition in the part of some to build in town now, but probably the disposition is not strong enough to begin to be very popular, and it may be abandoned, and the capital thus awaiting investment seek other channels.

Hickman has experienced various vicissitudes of fortune, and property owners have at times been very anxious that they did not overvalue the property, thereby adding increased value to their other property and rendering it more difficult and permanent.

DANCING MASTER.—A French dancing master, under the name of Begar, who it was said was well known as a teacher about Louisville, Frankfort, and other places, has perpetrated a like in our dancing people. He proposed introducing a class in the night-entertainment, and presented some to my wife and myself, to be paid $100.00 each, to be paid in advance. When the class was held all paid $100.00, but probably the class was not strong enough to begin to be very popular, and it may be abandoned, and the capital thus awaiting investment seek other channels.

There are some who like Hickman which can be built upon and should be held to day and to-morrow. Services will be held under some trees, and the usual services will be held in the usual hours.

ERROR.—The report in our last issue of the dangerous illness of Col. Elbert Tansil, Dresden, Tenn., was an error. It was his young nephew, Elbert Tansil Durham.

The Hickman Free School, under charge of Prof. T. E. Boyce, assisted by Mr. T. S. French, and Miss Emma Fugner, closed Friday evening. We believe the term was highly satisfactory to the parents.

A new ferry boat is being placed across the mouth of Little Obion, between Hickman and Columbus. This will prove a great convenience to a considerable section of Hickman county who are desirous of trading at Hickman.

Now is the time to begin to plant shade trees. Let everyone who has a street front see to it that the older and trees are set with vigorous young ones, and those who have failed heretofore neglect no longer to add so materially to the beauty and comfort of their premises.

260 bags of oats for salt at cheapest rate by [with] JOHN THOMAS.

ROCK FOR THE WHARF.—The rock for building the Hickman wharf, has commenced to arrive a number of cars having been received Wednesday. This rock is brought in the flat cars of the quarry, on the Tennessee, and we understand a large sum is being paid for it for the purpose. It is the intention to fill in as much as possible before the Spring rise.

The First of the Spring.—Our enterprising merchant, Wm. B. Bowden, has received well and is now sending out new spring stock of goods, which we believe is the first spring arrival in the market. The public will give him well, as the reputation of this house is a sufficient guarantee for an excellent selection of stock. His motto is new as in the past, quick sales and small profits. We direct quick sales and attractive advertising in this issue.
